

Fiji FRESH! Tombo

Wild-Caught Albacore

Let's face it – fresh tuna is expensive.

We know. We're one of the largest fresh tuna buyers in the world. That's why we went to Fiji, where longliners fish the big albacore that swim in the pure, deep waters of the South Pacific. At about half the price of yellowfin and bigeye tuna, tombo has an attractive deep pink meat, making it a great value that will put new sizzle in your fresh tuna sales.
